WHO IS JOE DREAMZ?

Joe Dreamz, born and raised in Slam Diego (Go Padres!), California, discovered his passion for music when he was in high school.

Shortly after, a friend reached out to him: “Hey, I have a mentor that wants to meet with you at Starbucks.”

After that meeting, Joe’s life would never be the same again.

His mentor wanted to recruit him for a network marketing company and invited Joe to their annual conference.

At that conference, every speaker on stage was either a motivational speaker or an author, and Joe became obsessed with personal development and self-help.

From that moment on, he decided to use his talent for music to inspire others to live their dreams!

Whether it’s a school assembly, music festival, TEDx talk, or birthday party, all he wants to know is:

“Are You Living Joe Dreamz?”
